50X1-HUM

1. A military radio station which was completed at the beginning of 1949 is located seven kilometers west of Pancevo, on the southern side of the Belgrade-Pancevo highway.
2. The station is reportedly very powerful, estimated at 100 kilowatts, and is primarily used for jamming purposes. Sixteen antennae, 30 meters tall, have been erected around the building containing all radio equipment.
3. Access to the building is restricted to authorized personnel only. The area is surrounded by a barbed-wire fence one and one-half meters high, with eight interspersed guard posts. The guard is composed of 30 men.
